FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Francis de Sales Parish,

The Gospel today is the story of the woman caught in adultery. According to the law, her sin carried the weight of a capital offense, and she was about to be stoned to death. But Jesus freed her from this punishment by facing her accusers and saying, "Let the one among you be who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." (John 8:7b) Hearing what Jesus said, one by one her accusers left, until only the woman remained with Jesus – and Jesus, the only one without sin, did not condemn her. He simply said, "Go, and from now on do not sin anymore." (John 8:11b)

We all know how easy it is to fall into sin. The Gospel teaches us that God alone can judge our hearts, and in the life and works of Jesus Christ, God reveals himself to be infinitely just and merciful.

At the conclusion of today's Gospel, Jesus pardons the woman and exhorts her to undergo a true conversion. The Lenten season provides us with ample opportunities to repent and accept the Good News of Jesus Christ. May the Holy Spirit inspire us to share the Good News with all we meet.

God's Blessings,

Fr. Jim Schuerman

Queridos Miembros de la Parroquia de San Francisco de Sales,

El Evangelio de hoy tiene que ver con una mujer que fue sorprendida cometiendo adulterio. Según la ley de Moisés, esta mujer tenía que morir a pedradas. Pero Jesús liberó a la mujer de la pena capital. Jesús simplemente dijo a sus acusadores: "El que de ustedes esté sin pecado, que arroje la primera piedra." (Juan 8, 7b) Y al oír esto, uno tras otro de ellos fueron saliendo. Al final quedó sola la mujer con Jesús – y Jesús, el único sin pecado, no la condenó. Solo le dijo, "Vete y no vuelvas a pecar." (Juan 8, 11b)

Todos nosotros somos conscientes de la facilidad con que caemos en el pecado. Jesús nos hace ver que solo Él puede juzgar los corazones de los hombres. Y por medio de las obras de Jesucristo, Dios se revela infinitamente justo y misericordioso.

Al final del Evangelio de hoy, Jesús perdona los pecados de la mujer y le exhorta a una conversión verdadera. El tiempo de Cuaresma nos ofrece muchas oportunidades para arrepentirnos y aceptar la Buena Nueva de Jesucristo nuestro Señor. Que el Espíritu Santo nos anime a convertirnos y a compartir el don de la compasión de Dios con los demás.

Que Dios los bendiga,

Padre Jim Schuerman

THE ONE MILLION CHALLENGE FOR THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

You may have read in last week's bulletin that we at St. Francis, working with St. Benedict's, St. Catherine's and our parish school have taken up a challenge. We have committed to giving One Million hours of volunteering to celebrate the Jubilee Year of Mercy. Since the Jubilee Year actually began back in December of 2015, we will be back tracking to locate all of the volunteer hours already completed. Even with all of those hours, we will need a huge amount of volunteering as we go forward until the Jubilee Year ends in November 2016. Scary? Yes and no. As mentioned in last week's bulletin, volunteering and mercy go hand in hand. Volunteering does not require a long term commitment, one hour, one good deed qualifies. One hour to help decorate the church for Easter, one hour to help at a funeral luncheon, one hour to bake for a bake sale, these all add up and need to be recorded toward our goal.

Anybody can be somebody's hero. Did you visit a sick friend or take them to the doctor? Did you attend a Bible Study? Did you help clean up after Irish Fest?

Take a walk through our Door of Mercy. Volunteering and mercy do go hand in hand, say to yourself, I can do that or I have done that. Of course we do have many established ministries that are always looking for new members. Think about it. Volunteering is at the very core of being human. No one has made it through life without someone else's help.

All workers will be required to attend a food safety training session in June at Elkhorn. You'll receive a free volunteer T-shirt that gets you free admission to the event and the satisfaction that you've shared time with friends to raise money for the renovation of our parish church. It will be fun, and, you'll be providing a valuable service for a worthy cause. Please help us in this endeavor to raise money for our church. We need your time and talent!

CATHOLIC CENTRAL NEWS

Catholic Central's 14th Annual Spring Fashion Show was held on Feb. 27, at the Veteran's Terrace in Burlington. It was an outstanding event with a show that included fashions exhibited by our talented grade school and high school students, parents, staff and alumni. Congratulations to Georgan Selburg, our Development Director here at Catholic Central, for planning and organizing this event. We are indeed fortunate to have such a dedicated and passionate person as Georgan working at our school. It is hard to believe, but Georgan has been a vital member of our school family for over seventeen years! Her faith and devotion to our school never ceases to amaze me.

Also, a huge thank you to Trattoria di Carlo for a delicious buffet luncheon, Adornable U Jewelry consultant-Karla Bockholt, Bloomingbyrds, Burlington Flowers and Interiors, Burlington Menswear, Christy's Bon Bon Belle, Clear Water Outdoor, E Street Denim, Edie Boutique, Enve Salon and Spa, Fleming's, gia bella Fowers and Gifts, Jak and Peppar consultant-Shannon Rihm, Jasmine Salon and Spa, KK Photography, Ladies First, Lake Shore Fashions, Lola's Affordable Fashions, Mary Kay consultant-Kierstin Vavrina, New to You, Platinum Salon and Spa, Raw Salon, Rue 21, Salon de Belle, Shear Image, Strawberry Fields, Subway, Trend Setters and Wal-Mart.

We have already registered a good number of students for next year's freshman class and expect to continue to grow. Catholic Central will also be taking part in the Wisconsin Parental Choice Program (WPCP) for the 2016-17 school year as a way to help make Catholic education accessible and affordable for all families who are interested. Our CCHS 200 Marketing and Recruitment Committee has great plans in place to help get the word out about our school and drive our enrollment toward our goal of 200 students by the year 2020. Our Endowment fund is currently at 1.8 million dollars and continues to grow and provide revenue for tuition assistance and operating expenses. We are continuing to expand our curricular offerings, adding more AP classes and other choices for our students for next year. Our faith formation opportunities continue to expand as well with assemblies and offerings in place and plans for more spiritual growth for both students and staff.

Through it all, please remember that Catholic Central High School remains committed to providing academic excellence, faith formation and leadership development in a family-like community built upon Faith, Knowledge, and Tradition. We remain a family in faith!

HELP PRESERVE HISTORY!

While making plans for the future of St. Francis de Sales church, the Project 2017 committee has been researching the past by studying vintage photos. Part of the church renovation goals involve bringing back some of the building’s original architectural features. Built in 1892, the building has gone through several different remodeling phases. If you have photos, old bulletins, postcards, wedding pictures, news articles, etc. that you would like to share we would love to see them. We are using these things to inspire some of the design portions of our current project. We are also starting to create a collection that we hope to have on display next year for the 175th (!) celebration of the existence of St. Francis de Sales Parish. If you want to keep your treasures, we can borrow and scan them to make a copy. Please contact Martha at (262) 949-4493 to arrange to drop off any historical items.
