FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Francis de Sales Parish,

This Sunday's Gospel (John 21:1-19) is the story of the disciples after the resurrection of Jesus. Simon Peter decided to return to his old way of life, and told his friends that he was going fishing, and the others agreed to join him. The Gospel tells us that they fished all night without catching anything. At dawn, a man on the shore called out to the disciples and instructed them to cast their nets over the right side of the boat, and when they did, they caught an abundance of fish. At that moment, they realized that the man on the shore was the resurrected Lord. It became very clear to the disciples that without the Lord, they could do nothing.

Once on the shore, Jesus gave Peter the opportunity to profess his unfailing love for him. Peter could never go back to his old way of life. He could no longer earn his living as a fisherman. Instead, Jesus commissioned him to be the shepherd of his flock with the words, "Feed my sheep." And Peter and the other Apostles went forth to gather all people into one fold.

This Gospel story teaches us that once we experience the risen Christ in our lives, we are invited to a new way of life free from the chains of sin and selfishness. We are called to be merciful, generous, charitable, and faithful. May we always proclaim Christ's resurrection in word and deed.

God's Blessings,

Fr. Jim Schuerman

Queridos Miembros de la Parroquia de San Francisco de Sales,

El Evangelio de hoy (Juan 21, 1-19) nos narra la historia de los discípulos después de la resurrección de Jesús. Simón Pedro dijo a sus amigos: "Voy a pescar", y ellos decidieron de acompañarlo. Pero toda la noche no pescaron nada. Al amanecer, un hombre en la orilla del mar les mandó que echaran las redes a la derecha. Lo hicieron, y se llenaron las redes. En este momento, reconocieron que el hombre en la orilla fue el Señor resucitado, y los discípulos aprendieron que no fue posible hacer nada sin la presencia del Señor.

Luego, en la orilla, Jesús le dio a Pedro la oportunidad de profesar su amor por Él. Era muy claro, que Pedro no pudiera regresar a su negocio como pescador. En cambio, Jesús lo hizo pastor de su rebaño con las palabras "Apacienta mis ovejas". Y Pedro y los demás Apóstoles recibieron la comisión de proclamar la buena nueva a todos.

Esta historia nos enseña que los que experimenten Cristo resucitado en sus vidas están invitados a vivir una nueva vida, libres de las cadenas del pecado. Cristo nos invita a ser misericordiosos, generosos, caritativos, y fieles. ¡Que el Señor nos ayude a proclamar la resurrección por medio de nuestras palabras y obras!

Que Dios los bendiga,

Padre Jim Schuerman

PARISH LIBRARY NEWS

Check out these NEW additions to our parish library:

The Ear of the Heart-An Actress' Journey From Hollywood to Holy Vows-Dolores Hart stunned Hollywood in 1963, when after ten highly successful feature films, she chose to enter a contemplative monastery. Now, fifty years later, Mother Dolores gives this fascinating account of her life, with co-author and life-long friend, Richard DeNeut.

Dolores was a bright and beautiful college student when she made her film debut with Elvis Presley in Paramount's 1957 Loving You. Born Dolores Hicks to a complicated and colorful Chicago family, Mother Dolores has travelled a charmed yet challenging road in her journey toward God, serenity and, yes, love. She entered the Abbey of Regina Laudis in Bethlehem, Connecticut, at the peak of her career, not in order to leave the glamorous world of acting she had dreamed of since childhood, but in order to answer a mysterious call she heard with the "ear of the heart". While contracted for another film and engaged to be married, she abandoned everything to become a bride of Christ.

DYNAMIC CATHOLICS AT ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

A great big THANK YOU to those who made it possible to offer free copies of The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic to both our English speaking and Spanish speaking family this Lent. If you see any of these Parish family members please thank them for their generosity:

Dr. Gerald Fleeer, Dr. Nestor and Bien Alabarca, Greg and Jean Dexter, Irene and Budd Humphrey, Joe and Roselyn Lanzito, Dr. Mark and Ann Pienkos and say a prayer of Thanksgiving for: the Weis family who donated in Memory of Grace Weis, Anonymous in the Spirit of Faith, Hope and Love and several other anonymous donors.

Because of their generosity and the participation of 40-50 parish family members we had 3 English and one Spanish discussion groups which have sparked the interest of those participating to learn more about their Catholic faith and become more involved in our St. Francis de Sales parish family life and ministries.

As many of you may know we have a very active and growing Bible Study on Wednesday mornings which starts at 10 a.m.. The current study will be ending before the end of the school year. For more information please call the Parish office at (262) 248-8524.

Plans are being made to offer more studies and programs, though the cost of the books may not be underwritten but we are looking at various programs to deepen our knowledge and understanding of our faith and will make them as affordable as possible for any and all who wish to participate.

A big THANK YOU again to all who donated to make the program possible and to all who participated either directly in the discussion groups or by reading the book at home.

SO VERY GRATEFUL

A huge “thank-you” to those who donated personal care items such as soap, shampoo, toothbrushes, etc. during Lent.

We filled Ziploc bags with a variety of those personal products with special emphasis on those in transit as well as victims of neglect and abuse.

ONE MILLION HOURS CHALLENGE

What is the value of a volunteer? What would our parish look like without volunteers? Would the church be cleaned, would decorations be put up, would we have any ministries, would there be a church library? What would happen to our Fall Festival, Irish Fest, Italian Fest, Soup and Stations, Emmaus Retreats, Bible Study? Who would take care of the Altar, Market Day, Casino Night, Knights of Columbus breakfast and so many, many, more. Think about it! Make a difference. Spring into volunteering!

Don't forget to fill out our volunteer form from here in the bulletin or pick one up in the lobby. Fill it out and return to the parish office, drop it into the Sunday collection basket or in the boxes at the lobby entrances. This project is in honor of the Jubilee Year of Mercy which began in December of 2015, so you can report hours from December of 2015 to the present. Questions? Please contact Millie McCormick at (630) 310-4703.
