FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Francis de Sales Parish,

Jesus told his disciples, "Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and the door shall be opened to you." (Luke 11:9) God will always respond, but we need to be persistent in prayer, constantly knocking at the door.

In today's Gospel, Jesus' disciples approach Jesus with a request: "Lord, teach us to pray." (Luke 11:1b) The disciples, of course, already knew how to pray, but when they observed Jesus in prayer, they knew his way of praying was different. His prayer was intense, intimate and constant. That is the kind of prayer the disciples desired for themselves. When Jesus taught his disciples the "Lord's Prayer," he taught them to approach God confidently and ask directly and persistently for their needs.

When we pray the Lord's Prayer, we are praying a prayer made up of petitions. We ask God for that his name be kept holy among all peoples of the earth, and that his kingdom come to fulfillment. We pray that God's will be the center of our lives. We ask for our basic necessities, our daily bread. We ask that we be forgiven for our failings, and that we learn to forgive others. We pray that we be kept free from temptation and sin.

The Lord's Prayer helps us to realize that everything comes from God. He will provide us with all we need. With confidence, we pray: "Thy kingdom come!"

God's Blessings,
Fr. Jim Schuerman

Queridos Miembros de la Parroquia de San Francisco de Sales,
Jesús dice: "Pidan y se les dará, busquen y hallaran, llamen a la puerta y les abrirán." (Lucas 11, 9) Jesús nos dice que tenemos que persistir en la oración, y Dios responderá.

En el Evangelio de hoy, los discípulos han notado que la oración de Jesús fue intensa, íntima, y constante. Ellos querían aprender como orar como Jesús. Entonces, le pidieron, "Señor, enséñanos a orar." (Lucas 11, 1b) Los discípulos ya sabían cómo pedir cosas de Dios, pero ellos, como nosotros hoy día, no sabían cómo pedir por las cosas esenciales, y muchas veces pedían por cosas superficiales. Al enseñarles el "Padre Nuestro", Jesús les enseñó a sus discípulos a acercarse a Dios con confianza, y pedir por las necesidades con persistencia.

El Padre Nuestro es una oración de peticiones. Pedimos por la santificación del nombre del Señor, por la venida de su reino, por la actualización de su voluntad, por nuestro pan de cada día, por el perdón y la habilidad de perdonar, y por la liberación de la tentación y del pecado.

Todo lo que tenemos viene de Dios. Él nos da todo lo que necesitamos para vivir una vida santa. Con confianza oremos: "¡Que venga tu reino!"

Que Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jim Schuerman

PLEASE PRAY FOR...

Please pray for our teens who will be attending the Stuebenville at the Lake Youth Conference this weekend July 22-24 in Kenosha. There will be 2,500 teens gathered to pray together, listen to dynamic speakers, adore the Lord in adoration, praise God through singing and dancing, attend mass and most attendees receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. For some this is an opportunity experience God on a personal level for the first time and others develop a greater zeal to be a witness for Christ.

After the conference concludes on Sunday over a dozen teens (about half of which will have attended the conference) will be heading to Harlan, Kentucky to serve the poor and elderly with Catholic Mission Trips, Inc. They will be spending the week painting and helping with light construction or landscape work as needed.

“For even the Son of man did not come to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.” (Mark 10:45)
