THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

June 18, 2017

*The bread that we break,
is it not a participation
in the body of Christ?
Because the loaf
of bread is one,
we, though many,
are one body,
for we all partake
of the one loaf.*

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Francis de Sales Church,

This Tuesday, June 20, Fr. Mark Danczyk and Fr. Sergio Lizama will become pastor and associate pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church and St. Benedict Church. This is my final weekend as pastor of St. Francis de Sales. I am so grateful for having had the opportunity to serve at St. Francis de Sales over these past years, and it has been a blessing to get to know all of you. I have been privileged to celebrate many sacred moments with you, including Sunday Masses, baptisms, weddings and funerals. I have enjoyed visiting the classrooms of the parish school and the religious education programs. I had many opportunities to visit the sick, the homebound and the imprisoned. I have had the honor of sharing ideas with you in meetings, and had fun with you at festivals and other events. You accepted me as priest, preacher, confessor, leader and friend. I am overwhelmed by the love I have experienced in your presence, and I have always felt the presence of Christ in your midst.

I know that I am a better priest and a better person for having had the opportunity to serve you. You helped me to be a good pastor, and encouraged me to follow the model of Christ the Good Shepherd. Your dedication to prayer, to God's Word and to the Sacraments has helped me rely more on God, and to depend more on his grace as I strive to be a good minister. I hope in some small way I have been an instrument of God's love in your lives, as well.

Please join me in welcoming Fr. Mark and Fr. Sergio in as they take on their shepherding roles! I will be moving to Milwaukee to begin my ministry as Auxiliary Bishop of Milwaukee. Know that my prayers are with you.

God's Blessings,
Bishop Jim Schuerman

Queridos Miembros de la Parroquia de San Francisco de Sales:

Este martes, el 20 de junio, el Padre Mark Danczyk y el Padre Sergio Lizama comenzarán su ministerio como párroco y asistente de la Parroquia de San Francisco de Sales y la Parroquia de San Benito. Hoy es mi último domingo como párroco de San Francisco de Sales. Estoy muy agradecido por la oportunidad de servir esta parroquia, y por la oportunidad de conocerles a ustedes. He tenido el privilegio de celebrar muchos momentos sagrados con ustedes, incluyendo misas dominicales, bautizos, bodas y funerales. He visitado a los niños de la escuela y del programa de formación religiosa. He tenido oportunidades de visitar a los enfermos y a los encarcelados. He compartido mis ideas con ustedes en las reuniones, y he celebrado con ustedes en las fiestas. Ustedes me han aceptado como párroco, confesor, líder y amigo. Siempre he experimentado el amor de Cristo en su presencia. ¡Mil gracias!

Ustedes me han ayudado a ser un mejor sacerdote. Como pastor, ustedes me han animado a seguir a Cristo el Buen Pastor. Al observar su dedicación a la oración, a la Palabra de Dios, y a los Sacramentos, he decidido de depender más de Dios y su gracia para poder servir bien.

¡Bienvenidos sean el Padre Mark y el Padre Sergio! Al comenzar mi ministerio de Obispo Auxiliar de Milwaukee, seguiré orando por todos ustedes.

Que Dios los bendiga!
El Señor Obispo Jim Schuerman

St. Francis de Sales Parish

1842 - 2017 | 175 YEARS

The 175th Anniversary is not just about a dinner! It is a celebration of 175 years of serving our community in Christ, from "Catholic Hill". It is a rich history, beginning with Irish immigrant farmers who came to America looking for a new beginning.

We will be having a Mass with Archbishop ListECKi, our own Bishop Schuerman and many other surprise guests, at 3 PM on August 6, followed by our gala dinner at Geneva National. Tickets are $60, with a choice of two entrees, Prime Rib or Pork Rack. Tickets are limited and are available in the Parish Office during the week and after Mass in the Parish Office on Sundays. We also plan to have them available at the Welcome Center at the chapel entrance. Please join us in this celebration of our past, as we look forward to our future.

LETTER FROM FR. GARY

Have you ever been captivated by the life of a saint or the lives of the saints? Well, you are certainly not alone. The saints are a rich and important part of our Catholic tradition. Their lives, joys, struggles, prayers, writings and examples of love and courage can inform and enrich our lives of faith today. And, of course, we have their prayers of intercession.

In this article today I wanted to mention St. Stephen of Hungary and a letter that he wrote to his teenage son. St. Stephen became king of Hungary in the year 1000 and ruled justly and peacefully for 38 years. He died just short of his seventieth birthday. His feastday is on Aug. 16, the day after the solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Aug. 15).

In the letter, St. Stephen gave his son advise and counsel on how to live a Christ-centered, faith-filled life marked by integrity. His son was to be his successor. I noted eight "Be" statements in the saintly king's loving words to his son. Here they are, and note how timeless they are, not only as loving to the young, but also to those of any age, living in the year 2017:

- "Be merciful (and especially to all who are experiencing violence);
- Be patient, with everyone;
- Be humble (in this life, that God may raise you up in the next); Note: Doesn't his reflect Jesus' teaching?!
- Be strong among the vicissitudes of life;
- Be truly moderate;
- Be gentle;
- Be honorable;
- Be chaste." *

I firmly believe that the first "Be," be merciful, was of special importance to St. Stephen as an overall Christ-like attitude toward our neighbor. To walk in his/her shoes, to reach out, to try to understand, to help in whatever way. St. Stephen could write these words to us today, couldn't he? Our Catholic tradition from the past can inform and enrich our lives of faith today...and no doubt, tomorrow.

May Jesus' special Peace always be with you,

Fr. Gary

Stewardship & Evangelization – the Chicken or the Egg?

Archbishop
Jerome E. ListECKI

At one time or another, you have probably heard the saying, “which comes first – the chicken or the egg?” You may have even used this adage when you were discussing something and weren’t sure where to begin or the process of how something got started.

In church circles, there are some people who have the “chicken and egg” discussion regarding stewardship and evangelization. One school of thought tells us that stewardship leads to evangelization. Another way of thinking emphasizes that evangelization must come before stewardship.

As I have said many times, my top priorities are Catholic Identity (who we are), Evangelization (what we do) and Stewardship (how we do it). So, while no one can definitively answer the question of which comes first – the chicken or the egg – I can tell you for sure that you need both!

Perhaps we might be wise to consider stewardship and evangelism as two branches of our faith “tree.” Both flow from embracing our faith fully – the gifts and the responsibilities – and then acting accordingly. Both call us to share all we have: our time, our talents, our resources and our faith, as we do our part to live as God intended, and invite others to do the same. Stewardship and Evangelization – one does not exist without the other.

Those involved with stewardship understand that the most important goal of stewardship formation is deepening our relationship with Jesus so that we can live more faithfully as his disciples in the world. In other words, the ultimate goal of stewardship formation is evangelization. When our faith lives are alive and on fire, we cannot help but share our love of Jesus with others.

We also understand that evangelization is central to the mission of all we do as Church. Through evangelization, we come to know, and to share, the Good News of Jesus Christ. Evangelization, simply stated, is encountering Jesus, embracing his call to discipleship, and sharing that call with others.

Disciples who practice stewardship as a way of life recognize God as the source of all they have, are, and will be. Good stewards recognize the most precious gift given by our gracious and generous God is the gift of faith and they recognize that this gift must be shared with others in our faith community and the larger world.

So, it’s not as important which came first as it is that we are faithful disciples whose lives are rooted in Catholic Identity, Evangelization and Stewardship.

What does this mean for me?

Stewardship and evangelization call us to share all we have – “our time, our talents, our resources and our faith.” When have I witnessed someone truly doing that?

Archbishop ListECKI states that the goal of stewardship is to deepen one’s relationship with Jesus in an effort to “live more faithfully as his disciples.” What have I been doing or could I do to deepen my relationship with Jesus?
