WHO CARES?

Sincere gratitude to all of you who so generously respond to our Human Concerns appeals. We've been given many personal products for those in need (basket in the Center). Also, thank you for opening your hearts and bank accounts to so many people in crisis this summer. Weather devastation is very sobering. Be blessed for caring!

CEMETERY BEAUTIFICATION

Our historic St. Francis de Sales Cemetery recently received a long overdue grooming, with trees trimmed and bushes snipped; with years of overgrowth revealing long forgotten monuments and headstones! A tremendous thank you goes out to Cemetery Committee members Jerry Hawver, Dave Altwies, Tim Walters, John Hickey and KC Members Jim Anderson and Rich Kelman, for providing their brawn as well as their chain saws! Additionally, a very special thank you to Phil and Jeannie Hall for the donation of the lovely statue of Our Blessed Mother, which adorns the entrance of the mausoleum!

Restoration plans for our cemetery include providing access to water, refurbishing toppled gravestones, tree planting, creation of a Memorial Garden and road repair. Prior to November 15th, our Sexton has requested that all plastic flowers be removed and parishioners are encouraged to schedule the date of Saturday, May 5th to assist with "spring clean-up"!

Amidst the charming country ambiance, consider securing the final resting place for your family, with the faithful who have called St. Francis de Sales Parish their spiritual home, since 1842. As fees will be increasing, please contact the parish office to discuss plot locations.

THE POWER OF EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

As He embraces the day with the light of His love, Jesus waits for you to ask Him to shower you with His graces!! Next to the holy sacrifice of the Mass, the greatest graces you may obtain are through time spent with Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration! Do you wish to be transformed? Is there something missing in your life? Then stop by to visit Jesus, truly present in the Holy Eucharist; adoration is offered every Tuesday following morning Mass until Benediction at 7 pm. Adore Him, love Him, pray in thanksgiving for all the blessings of your life...pray in reparation for your sins and the sins of the world in front of Jesus. Pray for peace throughout the world, the holy souls in Purgatory and all that is in your heart. You will feel His Love!

“The Holy Eucharist is an incomprehensible gift of God’s love which fills us with gratitude and with the desire to make this most wonderful gift, our Lord Jesus Himself, known to all our brothers and sisters. If, as is true, the Holy Eucharist is the source and summit of the Church’s life, the Holy Eucharist is also the source and summit of the Church’s mission in the world”. (Cardinal Raymond Burke, Divine Love Made Flesh, 178).

Permanent Adorers Needed!

Permanent adorers are needed from 1 p.m. – 2 p.m. every Tuesday, to sit with Jesus, as well as substitutions throughout the day...as needed. If you feel called to spend more time with Jesus and be an adorer, please contact Katie Alder at (262) 248-9254 or kalder@earthlink.net. Thank you...you will cherish this time with Him!

CATHOLIC DAUGHTER NEWS

At our October meeting we will be praying the living rosary. Come and be a part of this meaningful experience. Please call Lois Maywald, Regent, with any questions at 262-279-5733.
