Part Three of the Church Fathers:

After the last gathering of the Church Fathers I promised the community that I would do a third program on the Church Fathers.

We had completed the first three hundred years and only the major issues of the great Church Fathers at the time such as St. Justin Martyr, St. Irenaeus, St. Cyril, and St. Ignatius of Antioch.

Many loved learning what the earliest of the Church Fathers had to refine, understanding issues which today we take for granted but had not yet been decided. This third part is going to deal with how we deal with Scripture as Catholics, how we deal with the Trinity which interestingly not all Christians believe, and foundational statements of the Creed which are more complex than we recite on Sundays.

Come and join us Wednesday April 28th at 6:30pm.

I would like to give a very special thank you and a singular prayer for each and every person who helped with our celebrations during the Holy Week and Easter Sunday liturgies. First to Mr. Michael Deane who helped organize the various Lectors, Ministers, Musicians and Cantors who moved people's hearts through sharing their gift of music and hospitality to all or our parish and visitors.

I would like to thank Joanne and Sarah and their wonderful team in helping to decorate the sanctuary and church during the many different feast and celebrations within a five-day period. The various members of that team went out to get extra decorations when needed. I would like to thank Martha and Kathie for the flower decorations outside as we entered the Church. I would also like to thank Jeannie for all the sacred clothes that had to be cleaned and re-cleaned during this time.

Thanks to the Altar Society for the cleaning and polishing of the church and pews over the past few weeks. To our maintenance staff that made sure that our restrooms, the outside of the Church and the aisles of the church were clean and ready for the gatherings. To our office staff who answered many questions about services and times during the week. A Special thanks to the Ushers and Eucharistic Ministers who did multiple Masses on the Weekend.

It too so many to help us celebrate the Paschal Mystery in the Solemnity and Joy that the Liturgy calls forth. There unfortunately those who slip through the cracks when thinking all of those involved. But know I am very thankful for all who have helped in their own special way to celebrate this great Feast of Easter.

Finally, a special recognition for Fr. Gil and Fr. Barnardo who concelebrated with us all through the Triduum and the Hispanic Community for the Living Stations on Good Friday. Blessing to all and a Happy Easter from Fr. Ray Guthrie

FEAST OF ST. BERNADETTE SOUBIROUS

This week we celebrate the Feast of St. Bernadette Soubirous whom Our Lady of Lourdes appeared to in the 1850's in Lourdes France. She died of a painful and horrible disease at the age of 35.

The living and healing waters of Lourdes are still visited by hundreds of thousands a people a year. Many hundreds of healings have happened at Lourdes and have been scientifically proven as miracles. However, when Bernadette was asked could they bring her to the waters of Lourdes she said, "they are not for me..."

The pure and simple faith of St. Bernadette are best preserved from a famous statement from one of her fellow Sisters in the Covenant who marveled at Bernadette's faith in God even without his healing miracle, "Those without faith no miracle will suffice, those with faith no miracle is necessary."

So as we celebrate St. Bernadette let's remember that ultimate act of Our Lady and that was of physical healing what the world so desperately at this time cries out for with all the struggles from this past year. Our Lady of Lourdes, Pray for us.

In the Roman Catholic Church, Easter has always been a celebration of the great love that God has for His Creation. A love that was shown when the Divine Son became incarnate and dwelt among us, sharing in our lot, showing us the way to the Father, and making the perfect offering in atonement for our sins. On the First Sunday after Easter the Church celebrates Divine Mercy Sunday, a feast based upon the private revelations of Jesus to St. Faustina.

In extending this Feast to the entire Church, Pope John Paul II re-emphasized the resurrection context of Easter, citing St.

Faustina's diary: "Humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy." In describing this feast, St. John Paul II says: "Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ, a gift which it offers to all humanity."

The first epistle of St. John declares to the entire world that "God is love;" and in his encyclical letter Rich in Mercy, St. John Paul II wrote "Mercy is love's second name." If we understand mercy in the Biblical sense, then without any fear of error contrary to the faith, it can be said, as John Paul II said, that mercy is the greatest attribute of God. This Biblically formulated relationship between love and mercy is expressed by St. Faustina when she says: "Love is the flower, mercy the fruit."

Divine Mercy is the form that God's eternal love takes when He reaches out to us in the midst of our misery and our brokenness. Whatever the nature of our need might be — sin, guilt, suffering, or death — He is always ready to pour out His merciful, compassionate love for us, to help us. Where there was only despair, loneliness, and heartache before, comes joy, fruitfulness, and abiding love.

The message of Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us and wants us to approach Him in constant prayer, repenting of our sins while asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world. He wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others, extending our love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us. We must realize that God does not do anything in portions. He is infinite and the amount of His Divine Mercy available to us is infinite. The only limiting factor is us. The more we trust in Jesus, the more graces we will receive and the more all will come to share His joy. This is the message Jesus is giving us through today's devotion to his Divine Mercy, a mercy which he tells us is unfathomable and which he wants us to spread throughout the world through our own actions and love for others.
