Our Merciful Parish

The Works of Mercy Lenten project was fruitful beyond what anyone had expected. Your many gifts along with those of the parish school overwhelmed us.

May God tenderly bless the children who created cards and wrote their own precious Easter greetings to those in care facilities. A special thanks to Lori Glass and Kathleen Dobblers' Religious Education students work.

Also, 100 unique cards for the elderly and those imprisoned came from a class led by Deb Miller. Working together, we brought Easter hope and comfort to many.

You're Invited:

Saturday, May 18 - Cemetery Spring Clean Up

Join us Saturday morning, May 18 from 8 a.m. to noon to freshen up our cemetery! Please wear your gloves and bring a rake; Jerry will advise as to our assignments.

Location: 1 mile east of Lake Geneva, on the right side of Highway 50. Pre-requisite: flexible knees and a prayer or two for a sunny day!

Thank you...we look forward to seeing you there!

With grateful appreciation, the Cemetery Committee

Volunteers Needed

Do you have a background in marketing or some experience with fundraising? Do you have some skills in graphic design? Do you like to help plan events? St. Francis de Sales Stewardship committee is looking to add 2 more people to our dynamic team. You would be using your talents to help our parish build and recognize volunteers, market our parish and events, work with social media and our website, and help to continue to make our parish welcoming to new people and visitors. We meet once a month on Thursday evenings from 6-7 p.m. Our next meeting is on May 9, you are welcome to come and see what we're all about to determine if this would be a good fit for you! Please contact Martha at stewardship@sfdslg.org if you are interested or have any questions.

Letter From Fr. Mark

Dear Parishioners,

On May 6, 7 and 8, all the priests in southeastern WI (Milwaukee Archdiocese) will gather for our Spring Assembly. We will spend time upgrading our Theology; honoring the priests who have been ordained 25, 40, 50, 60 and 65 years. There will also be updates from the priest personnel office and from Archbishop Listecki.

Fr. Sergio and I will be gone this Monday – Wednesday in order to attend the assembly.

I do not plan on coming back to the parish unless there is a funeral.

Please keep the priests in your prayers as you are always in our prayers.

Easter season blessings,
Fr. Mark

RECTORY CLEAN UP DAY - SAVE THE DATE - June 1st, 1:00-3:30 pm

At 3:30 all are invited to join after for a brat cookout, cold drinks, and fellowship.

Calling on all helping hands! Our Parish Rectory needs some sprucing up. We are looking for volunteers to help with clean up on Saturday, June 1st, 1:00-3:30 pm.

Just a couple of hours of your time will make a HUGE difference. Needed are window washers, sweepers, weeders, diggers, painters, and cleaners. We will be working on the exterior of the rectory, rectory garage, and the rectory grounds.

This is an excellent opportunity for Community Service Hours for high students.

RCIA

St. Francis de Sales parish celebrated a beautiful Easter Vigil by initiating six new members into the Catholic church. Juana Hernandez and Ida Tarczynski were baptized, confirmed and received their first Communion. Mark Winkelman was received into the church and confirmed. All three have been attending RCIA formation classes and participated in the special Rites which are part of the RCIA process. Jesus Soto Serna also received his first Communion, and Juan Rolando Cortez Jaramillo and Rigoberto Cruz were confirmed and received their first Communion. They are all pictured here on Holy Saturday along with their sponsors, RCIA instructors and Fr. Sergio Lizama. Congratulations to all!
