Second Collection to Benefit Local Families

Side by Side, a local, all volunteer non-profit organization, will be the recipient of the second collection during the Labor Day weekend masses. In its 13th year of operation, families in the Lake Geneva School District are helped with rent, utilities, and prescription medication. While there is no typical family that applies for assistance, many people seek help due to the loss of a job, a health crisis, or an unexpected financial event. Side by Side helps to keep individuals and their families in their homes, and the lights, gas and water turned on. For many, Side by Side is their last hope. Sided by Side also provides information about other community resources such as local food pantries, the clothes closet, energy assistance, and Salvation Army. A new program, Financial Coaching, strives to help clients develop goals to better understand their finances.

Business meetings are the second Tuesday of the month at the First Congregational United Church of Christ, 715 Wisconsin St. at 8 pm. Anyone interested in learning about the organization is invited to attend. Individuals and families in the Lake Geneva School District seeking assistance with rent, utilities, or prescription medication are welcome to apply for help on the third Tuesday of the month at 7 p.m. at the same location.

Your financial assistance is greatly appreciated! Volunteers are always welcome as well. To learn more about Side by Side or about becoming a volunteer, call Sue Bulla, at 262-248-4130.

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Rectory Memory from the John Nanna Family

Our family have so many great memories of the late Father Dave. He has blessed our home, eaten stone crabs there, married our daughter, Jennifer, played golf with him when he took off his shirt for most of the holes because it was hot. Also, he was not afraid to drop a few "unpriestly words" if he did not like his shot. After all, Dave is indeed human, like all of us.

His homilies were often memorable. He frequently railed against "stuff". He said we all have too much "stuff" in our lives. You could just see everyone's head nodding yes.

He once was asked when someone died, "what did they leave behind?" Dave's answer, "all of it". His best "stuff" story went like this. He was giving last rights to an older woman. While doing so he overheard the woman's two adult children in an adjacent room arguing on who was going to get a certain lamp when the mother died. The mother died a few minutes later, alone with Dave. Dave said that he almost went to the two adult children and say to them, "you know what , I got the lamp!!!"

We sorely miss him and his common sense approach to life.

Our talented school and administrative staff have been training, preparing, and meeting to welcome the our students back to school. The first school day was Wednesday, August 28. Blessings to all for a safe and wonderful year!

It's Time To Think About R.C.I.A.

The RCIA program will begin here at St. Francis. These classes will benefit anyone who is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith. If you were never baptized, if you were baptized in another denomination or if you were baptized and raised Catholic, but you left the church for some reason and you now would like to return, these classes will help you. Attending these classes do not obligate you in any way. Any choices you make regarding your faith life are strictly up to you. But if you have been feeling "called" to explore your faith life, the RCIA will help you to find answers. For more information call Geri Braun (262.249.9590) or Lisa Parker (262.325.4227).

IN THIS DAY AND AGE CAN HUMILITY RULE?

Are you someone who wants to deepen their faith and enrich their personal life? What could you learn about doing just that from a Benedictine monk who teaches and coaches rugby, supervises a juggling team, cultivates carnivorous plants, raises carpenter ants, surfs and leads a monastic lifestyle? Find out by joining us as we explore a very entertaining book by J. Augustine Wetta, O.S.B. entitled Humility Rules- Saint Benedict's 12-Step Guide to Genuine Self-Esteem. We offer two time options for your convenience: Monday nights at 7:00 p.m. starting Sept. 16 or Thursday mornings at 10:00 a.m. starting Sept. 19. The series will run for six weeks. The book is available at Amazon or Barnes and Noble. To join us, please call Maureen Redmer at (262) 249-0424 or Geri Braun at (262) 249-9590. Hope to see you in September!!
