Dear Parishioners,

I would like to thank so many in our parish, first and foremost because of their generous sharing of talent and time, serving the community as Ushers, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Musicians, and Clean-up with Covid or one of the many other roles such as book group leaders, living nativity participants, prayer group members and so many others who helped our community to have such a great and joyful celebration of life on Christmas Day and the Feast of the Holy Family.

Also thank you for the generosity by so many for your financial support of the parish, helping us through this time when things are tight for every family in some way or another. I feel so blessed to be part of a parish that truly lives up to being the breathing and living “Body of Christ” among the people of our local community.

I pray that as we move into the future that the St. Francis de Sales Catholic Community will always be that light shining on the Hill overlooking the Lake and all those who are part of it. We Hope all of you have a very Blessed New Year. For as Jesus taught us as we move into the future, even this day will pass until all are one in God. A Blessed New Year, Fr. Ray Guthrie

you*

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

The Epiphany for many Catholics hundreds of years ago was considered the original Christmas. In the first four centuries the Epiphany was the central celebration of Jesus' entry into the world. The only major feast of celebration for all the Church was Easter. Later when Catholicism became a central element of the Roman Empire Christmas as a celebration of the Birth of Christ on December 25th became a yearly celebration in the Church replacing pagan feast days of the Winter Solstice. For many years the Church from East to West struggled to come up with an agreed upon date for Christmas. There was too much tradition that had developed in those four hundred years hence we as Catholics depending on which part of the Catholic Community you belonged dictated which celebrate of Christmas on either December 25th or January 6th the Feast of the Epiphany. This separation of December 25th until January 6th are what we call today the twelve days of Christmas. Nevertheless, the original "Christmas" was the Epiphany and that is why we as Western Roman Catholic have placed the Epiphany on a Sunday closest to January 6th after the Feast of the Holy Family.

So as we celebrate this Feast of the Epiphany let us recall that this is the day in which Christ, the Son of God was introduced to all the World, fulfilling what the Prophet Isaiah said about the Messiah, "He will be a light to the Nations." That same light that the Magi followed to find the Salvation of all humanity in the Child born of Woman, Jesus the Christ.

Have a very Blessed Epiphany and keep our Eastern Brothers and Sisters in your prayers as they celebrate the birth of Christ.

IMPORTANT YEAR-END TAX INFORMATION

As reminder, with tax season quickly approaching, this year the CARES Act will allow taxpayers to deduct donations to charity of up to $300 on their 2020 federal tax return. This new law allows taxpayers to take a charitable deduction even if it is not itemized. In addition, funds from an IRA can be used for charitable donations which can help lower your tax bill. Check with your tax advisor for more information on new tax laws for 2020.

Please remember the parish in your year-end giving. The needs of our St. Francis de Sales & Lake Geneva Community continue to grow as the pandemic remains.

ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON & ST. JOHN NEUMANN

This week we celebrate two tremendously important Saints when it comes to Catholic Parish School. Both of whom we know about but during their lives were not always care for or respected by the religious element of the Catholic Community

The first is the feast day of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. In 1805, Elizabeth Seton chose to become a Catholic. This choice changed her life and ours. Elizabeth had been born to rich parents in New York City in 1774. Her parents taught her to care about others. When Elizabeth grew up, she fell in love with William Seton. They married in 1794. Between 1794 and 1803, when William died, the happy couple had five children. But when he died, William left his family with no money. So after his death, Elizabeth had to find work. Her friends and family refused to help her. Why? Because Elizabeth had chosen to become a Catholic. This decision changed her whole life.

In 1808, Elizabeth and her children moved to Emmitsburg, Maryland. There, she founded a school for the poor. Soon other women joined Elizabeth in her work. This group of women became the Sisters of Charity. In the years that followed, Elizabeth created the first Catholic parish school, which led to the development of the Catholic school system in the United States. She also started the first Catholic orphanage in America in New York City. By the time she died in 1821—at the age of 46—she had founded 20 convents. Today, six separate religious orders of women in the United States trace their roots to the beginnings of the Sisters of Charity in Emmitsburg.

The second is St. John Neumann: As a boy, he lived in Bohemia, which is now part of Czech Republic. He studied hard, for he wanted to be a missionary priest in America. By the time he was twenty-four, he had learned six languages and had completed his studies for the priesthood. He was not ordained, however, because his bishop thought there were enough priests in his country.

So John Neumann decided to leave for America. When he arrived, he had one suit of clothes and one dollar in his pocket. Three weeks later, the bishop of New York ordained him. St. John's first work was with the German-speaking people in mission parishes near Buffalo, New York. He was not well accepted and some people disliked his ways. Priests at that time traveled on horseback and went long distances to care for people in neighboring towns and villages. People laughed at the clumsy way Father John rode. Children made fun of him.

John remained silent, however, and continued going about teaching religion, visiting the sick, and training teachers. He felt the need for community life, so he entered the Redemptorist Order. He was the first Redemptorist to make vows in the United States. He became the superior of the American branch of the order. When he was forty-one years old, he became the fourth bishop of Philadelphia. He was not welcomed with his accent and his plain style of bishop and priest. He also had to deal with an anti-Catholic group that was burning convents and schools. Because he felt he wasn't capable of doing his job, he asked for a smaller diocese, but he was told to stay. John started Catholic schools in his diocese, for he believed it was very important for children to be educated and taught the ways of Jesus. In eight years Philadelphia's two Catholic schools grew to one hundred schools. John brought many teaching orders to his diocese.

Bishop John Neumann died of a heart attack while he was walking down the street. Throughout his life, John Neumann went about his work quietly and humbly. No special honors were given him. He was even unpopular. Only after his death did people begin to talk about their humble, good bishop who worked so hard for God.

BLESSING OF HOMES

Blessings of Homes: If you're a Catholic, you've probably seen it: 20 +M+C+B +21 a mysterious series of letters and numbers, looking for all the world like an equation, inscribed in chalk over a doorway at your parish, or at the home of a friend. Maybe you thought you could figure it out. Maybe you were too embarrassed to ask, "What the heck is that?" If you don't know what the chalk is all about, don't be ashamed. You're certainly not alone.

Epiphany marks the occasion of a time-honored Christian tradition of blessing the house by "chalking the doors." The letters have two meanings. First, they represent the initials of the Magi — Caspar, Malchior, and Balthazar — who came to visit Jesus in His first home. They also abbreviate the Latin phrase, Christus mansionem benedicat: "May Christ bless the house." The "+" signs represent the cross, and the "20" at the beginning and the "21" at the end mark the year. Taken together, this inscription is performed as a request for Christ to bless those homes so marked and that He stay with those who dwell therein throughout the entire year.

The chalking of the doors is a centuries-old practice throughout the world, though it appears to be somewhat less well-known in the United States. It is, however, an easy tradition to adopt, and a great practice whereby we dedicate our year to God from its very outset, asking His blessing on our homes and on all who live, work, or visit them there. It is a custom after the Epiphany to have your house Blessed a common practice in countries settled by the Spanish, such as Columbia, the Philippines, Costa Rica, and Mexico. Traditionally the blessing is done by either a priest or the father of the family. The chalking of the doors of a home encourages Catholics to dedicate their life at home to God and to others. Seeing the symbols over our doors can help to remind us, while passing in and out on our daily routines, that our homes and all those who dwell there belong to Christ.

If you are interested, please call the Office and we will see how many Blessings of Homes we can do because of Covid and the restrictions keeping things safe for all. A Blessed Epiphany
